GOVERNOR M'CREARY'S OPENING SPEECH

He Begins His Campaign at Bowling Green in a Strong Address That Is Received With Great Enthusiasm.

One of the Largest Crowds That Ever Attended a Political Meeting in the State Greets the Ex-Governor.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Sept. 4.—Governor James B. McCreary, Democratic nominee for Governor, opened his campaign in this city today. The largest crowd that ever attended a political meeting here was present. Democratic voters poured in from the surrounding counties to give their personal approval to their party leader and to endorse the platform upon which he is asking the votes of the people. The enthusiasm with which Governor McCreary was received gives evidence of an aroused party spirit, which augurs well for Democratic success.

His speech was a complete review of the political situation in Kentucky and the nation. It leaves no live subject untouched. It calls the Republican party to account for its failures to live up to its platform pledges.

Governor McCreary delivered a masterful speech. He heartily endorsed every plank in the Democratic platform, and left no doubt in the minds of his hearers where he stands on every public question. His speech in full is as follows:

Fellow Citizens: I have the honor of addressing you today as the regularly nominated candidate of the Democratic party for the office of Governor.

No words I can utter seem strong enough to express my gratitude for the nomination given to me by the Democrats of Kentucky.

I can only say I am sincerely and earnestly thankful for the great honor conferred upon me, and I shall try with whatever energy or intellect I possess to carry the Democratic flag to victory, and if I am elected Governor of Kentucky I will have no personal schemes to advance, no individual aspirations to promote, but I shall do all in my power to discharge every duty required of me faithfully and efficiently, and try in every proper way to uplift Kentucky, promote progress, improvement and advancement, preserve law and order and uphold all that will bring prosperity to the State and happiness to the people.

It will always be a source of pleasure to me that Madison County, where I have resided all my life and where I am thoroughly known, endorsed me for the office of Governor, with only 34 votes against me in the primary election and 2,400 votes for me, in a very busy season, being not far from the full Democratic vote of the county, and in the Eighth Congressional district, which I represented in Congress for twelve years. I was endorsed by a majority in the primary election of over 6,000 votes.

At the outset I wish to say with emphasis, if I am elected Governor I will not be controlled by a clique, machine or individual, but I shall be as I was before when I had the honor to be Chief Executive—the Governor of the State according to the Constitution and the law.

Duty of Democrats.

There was never a time in our State when Democrats should be more alert and aggressive, more harmonious and united, than the present time. Kentucky Democrats are to fight the opening political battle this year, which will precede the great National battle for President next year. Kentucky Democrats will help start the movement which I believe will result in the election of a Democratic President in 1912.

While Democrats in other States are carrying the Democratic flag full high advanced to victory and increased majorities, Democrats in Kentucky must not falter or hesitate, but rather be energetic, enthusiastic, invincible, victorious.

The State of Kentucky.

The first and foremost subject to enlist attention of all is the State of Kentucky. There is everywhere in our State a greater desire for progress, improvement and advancement than ever before. The location, the climate, the resources, the splendid men and the attractive women show that we have everything to make Kentucky one of the greatest States in the Union, if proper efforts are made.

I was born and reared in Kentucky, and I have always loved my native State, and it is but natural for me to wish to see her attain all of her sister States in every material interest and every desirable form of progress. Kentucky occupies a central place in the great Mississippi Valley, and no part of the world shows greater progress and activity than that vast region stretching from the Alleghenies westward to the Rocky Mountains, and southward to the Gulf of Mexico, containing an area of a million and a quarter square miles, and having a population of thirty millions, and possessing natural advantages unexcelled by any section of the globe.

While her sister States are developing and utilizing every advantage, Kentucky must go forward also. We live in an age of progress and development, and the pulse and pace of the world have been greatly quickened. Our State must keep step to the music of the age, and we must have united, aggressive efforts for industrial and commercial supremacy, and Kentucky must forge to the front as one of the leading States of the Union in farming, in manufactures, in mining, in education, and in all the varied interests of a great people inhabiting a great State.

Few States, if any, in our Republic have such geological formations, such diversity of soils and mines, and such varied attractions as Kentucky.

Great Agricultural and Mining State. The soil of Kentucky is very rich for agricultural purposes. Nowhere can be found better producing tobacco land, better producing hemp land, better producing corn, wheat, rye, oats and barley lands.

Our State produces nearly one-third of the tobacco grown in the United States and 90 per cent of the hemp of the United States is produced in Kentucky.

With an area of 41,283 square miles only about 1,500 square miles are unfit for agriculture. Our coal fields are unexcelled in any State, there being 15,680 square miles of coal-bearing area, with coking coal in seven counties of the western coal fields and ten counties in the eastern coal fields, and coal used in abundance.

Her timber districts are immense, comprising vast forests of merchantable timber of every variety, and iron ore, lead, zinc, building stone and pottery clay abound in almost inexhaustible quantities, while rich, paying oil wells have been opened in various sections of the State.

Kentucky has over 2,000 miles of rivers, including the Ohio and Mississippi rivers where they bound its borders, and over 3,000 miles of railroads are ready and convenient for travel and transportation, and her live stock is not excelled in any part of the world.

Will Be Great Manufacturing State. Kentucky is not only a great agricultural and mining State, but her manufactures are extensive and increasing rapidly, and being situated midway between the Northern Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico, and between the Eastern and Western ranges of the North American Mountains, is destined on account of location and facilities to become after a while a great manufacturing State.

When Solon, the great Athenian law-giver, was full of years and full of honors he said: "I have done all in my power to improve my country and to defend its laws." If Kentucky will emulate his example we will have a great era of development in our commonwealth.

I will always be ready, whether in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success," writes Mrs. M. I. Rashford, Polesville, Md., For sale by all dealers.

WAYNESBURG

The protracted meeting held at Waynesburg by Brothers Church and Smith was brought abruptly to a close by the illness of the latter's wife. Bro. Smith is a first class preacher and his earnest exhortations made great impression on the people of this community. Large crowds attended and although the house was filled to its utmost capacity, perfect order was maintained until the last night, of services when some boys, who do hope they were not our Waynesburg boys, secured some rocks and took the church for a target. Deputy Sheriff Reynolds and some others hastened to the scene of disturbance but the offenders were gone when they arrived. A reward was promptly offered for information, but none has been received so far.

Mrs. Malissa Padgett and charming daughter Miss Anna, of Dixon, Tenn., are visiting their many friends of Waynesburg and vicinity.

Miss Bertha Gouch is spending a few days with the homefolks at Danville.

Several people from here attended the Somerset fair and all report a good time.

A fishing party of 32 was organized here last week. They proceeded to Rock Creek taking their lunch and spent the day on the banks of the creek. Laughing talking and fishing were the issues of the day. In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Houdley Gouch, Everett, Morgan, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Singleton, Miss Anna Padgett, Miss Alice Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Morgan, Miss Marie Morgan, and Mrs. S. B. Gouch of Somerset.

"Uncle Billy Gouch" was also in the party. He has passed the 87th milestone but still enjoys a fishing excursion as much as the youngest member of the party.

Mrs. Sarah Hayes, wife of W. D. Hayes, passed to the great beyond last week. Mrs. Hayes was a noble Christian lady and was greatly loved and respected by her many friends. We extend to the bereaved family our heart-felt sympathy.

Mr. Joe Starns was here to see his best girl Sunday.

Mrs. Azil Johnson, of Somerset, is spending a few days with her mother Mrs. Betsy A. Singleton.

Mr. Lloyd Simmons, of Danville, was here Saturday.

Miss Meecie Horton is very sick with typhoid fever.

Master Willie Noham spent last week in Danville with his sister Mrs. Stella Doolin.

MT. SALEM.

Farmers are rejoicing over the recent rains we have been having. The water is yet scarce as hen's teeth. Mrs. S. E. Green returned to her home at McKinney, Monday after a visit to Miss Mattie Floyd.

There was a picnic at Barnett's Park last Saturday, Aug. 20th. A large crowd was present and every one had a pleasant time.

Mrs. Pearl Ferguson of Columbus, Ga., is visiting her sister Miss Mattie Floyd here. This is Mrs. Ferguson's first trip to Kentucky since she was eight years old. There was quite a number from here attended the big barbecue and sale at McKinney, Monday.

Miss Mattie May Floyd was the guest of her sister Mrs. Floyd Hughes in McKinney the first of the week.

HUNDREDS WILL COME TO HEAR McDERMOTT.

Democratic Leader To Speak Here Court Day—Campaign Opening Up.

Lincoln county democrats will gather in Stanford by the hundreds next Monday to hear Hon. Edward McDermott, the nominee for Lieutenant Governor, speak at the court house. This will be the formal opening of the campaign in Lincoln and from now on the pot will boil, as the democrats intend to perfect such an organization in the state this year as has not been known in political campaigns in recent years.

Mr. McDermott will speak at the court house at half past one o'clock. Howan Saulley last week received his commission as campaign chairman for Lincoln county and is engaged in selecting a campaign committee composed of representative democrats from all sections of the county who are ready and willing to get out and go to work for the party's success.

The suggestion of the Interior Journal that the candidates for county offices, relegate their personal campaigns and ambitions to the background until after the state campaign is ended, and get out and prove the quality of their democracy by work for McDermott and the state ticket, is meeting with hearty approval and response from the rank and file of the party and candidates as well. All with whom the Interior Journal has talked have expressed a willingness to take off their coats and go to work to bring out the voters and each seems determined to make his individual section of the county for his own particular precinct show up with just a little better democratic majority than ever before.

The following letter from Hon. M. F. North, of Hustonville, is illustrative of the spirit in which this suggestion has been received, and Mr. North's example is well worthy of emulation. He writes:

Hustonville, Ky., Aug. 30.
Mr. Shelton M. Saulley:
Editor of the Interior Journal, Stanford, Ky.

Dear Sir:—I endorse the suggestion you offered in the last issue of your paper, that the candidates for the various county offices suspend effort in their individual interest and join in united effort in the interest of our ticket to be elected in November.

We have a splendid ticket and excellent platform and with proper effort, we should be able to roll up an unprecedented majority for our ticket. I will at the proper time tender to the campaign committee of our party, in the county, my services in advocacy of our ticket and our platform, and will be pleased to speak wherever I may be assigned.

Respectfully,
M. F. NORTH.
Let's hear from others.

NEAL'S CREEK.

The little son of Uncle Mose Berry is very sick.

Mr. Cliff Hamilton of Cincinnati is spending several days at Mr. Joe Ross.

The friends of Mrs. Joe Ross will be glad to hear that she is recovering now from a severe illness.

31 ADDITIONS AT GREEN RIVER. Evangelist Ed. Hubbard has just closed a two-weeks meeting on Green River, in which 31 additions to the church of Christ resulted. The meeting closed Sunday night, and after the services were over the congregation repaired to the river, where the rites of baptism was administered at the same hour of the night which Eld. Hubbard says is in harmony with the scripture.

JUMBO

Mrs. Minnie Ervin is visiting Mrs. Hen Young.

Miss Edna Mason was in Stanford this week on business.

Mr. G. W. Starns was in McKinney this week on business.

DR. JOHN COOK.

Is Certainly "Going Some" While Sojourning in Canada.

Dr. John Cook, Stanford's well-known clovered veterinarian, who recently went to Montreal to take a course in surgery, is "making good" with a vengeance according to reports which have been received from there. While he is in Canada the "Cole's Combined Shows" have secured his services and are making him quite a feature. In the large display bills gotten out by the show, Dr. Cook is made quite a feature. Copies of the bill have been received here and the description of Dr. Cook thereon is much appreciated by those who know him in this section, and everyone who knows him knows that everything said about him is so, for no smarter negro than John Cook ever left Stanford, nor one more generally liked by everybody. The show bills say in big type: "We have engaged Dr. John Cook, of Kentucky, U. S. A., the champion horseman of the world, the trainer and educator of fine saddle horses—three-gaited saddle horses. He will make sensational drives with fast trotters. Remember, he is the largest horse man in the world. He will tell you the breeding of any saddle, trotting or thoroughbred horse in America. He can tell the age of any horse. He will learn you how to train the Kentucky saddle horse. He will teach you who who breed and raise them. Don't fail to come and see him. He is the wonder of the world. He will write a prescription for any complaint a horse has free. He will teach you how to breed First National Bank of Stanford, Ky., Lincoln County National Bank, State Bank & Trust Co., also of Stanford, Ky., E. S. A. He will teach ladies to ride in Kentucky style free.

We have 100 fine horses 80 fine people. Don't fail; come and see the wonder of the world, Dr. John Cook."

McKINNEY.

Misses Lou and Irene Elliott Epperson, Ruth Cocking Mrs. Cocking Mrs. W. A. Coffey, Will Mobley, and several others from here attended the fair at Somerset Friday and report a good time.

Mr. Belden, of Liberty and Miss Cora Nunneley of Turnersville was the guest of Catherine Murphy last Friday.

Misses Docia and Christine Metcalf of Paint Lick are the attractive guests of their brother R. H. Metcalf.

Our lot sale was quite a success there being about 70 lots in all, sold. The lots went very reasonably, prices running from $35 to $105, and were sold as fast as the auctioneer could cry them, off and could have sold a dozen or so more without any trouble for it is impossible for people to get a vacant house in town, they have been in such demand.

This is a good point for all kinds of business and a very desirable town to live in, we have three factories, a bank doing a good business, churches, a graded school and eight stores, also a big lumber and stove business is done.

Mr. D. C. Clark, of Louisville, who had the lot sale here is to be complimented on the way in which the sale was conducted. He treated the crowd of about 1,500 to good music furnished by the McKinney band, and after the sale they served good dinner.

Mr. Clark came to us highly recommended as a man of sterling qualities and he made many friends while here. He will hold a big sale at Berea.

Mr. Roe Turner of Chattanooga, Tenn., was the guest of Mr. Butler and family last week. Mr. Turner is an engineer on the Q. & C. road south.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ware attended the Somerset fair last week.

Mr. Lester McHargue of Georgetown has been selected as the proper man to assist Professor O. B. Falls in the Danville High School this year. The new instructor comes highly recommended and is sure to prove a valuable assistance to the excellent faculty in charge. He stood a most thorough examination and his ability as a scholar is surpassed only by his gentlemanly qualities and personal refinement.—Danville Advocate.

Mr. McHargue has friends here who will be glad to learn of his success.

Miss Rose McCormack the attractive and efficient correspondent of the I. J., at Hustonville was in our town for a while Friday afternoon.

MILLARD F. ROUNT SUICIDES.

Millard F. Rount, formerly of the Marksbury section Garrard county, committed suicide by shooting himself. He left Garrard about three years ago, buying a farm near Lexington. He leaves a widow, who was a daughter of the late Arnap Harlan.

FIRE BUG AT WORK?

It begins to look like a fire bug is at work on barns in the West End. A large barn on the farm of Adam Carpenter, this side of Moreland, caught fire Sunday evening about 8 o'clock and burned down. It contained about 150 bales of hay and was not insured. This is the second barn fire in the West End in a week.

Let Jesse D. Wearlen the Insurance Man of Stanford keep you always protected from fire.

PREACHERSVILLE.

James L. the little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Adams, formerly of this section, but now of near Richmond, died last Friday night of bronchial trouble. The remains were laid to rest here in the Preachersville cemetery Saturday afternoon after services at the grave by Rev. J. E. Roberts. The heart-broken parents have the sympathy of everyone.

Some 20 odd converts received the ordinance of baptism Saturday afternoon near White's Mill. The rite was administered by Rev. Wm. McC. Hutchins the pastor of the church of Harmony, who has been assisted in the revival by Rev. Pearce, of Peridale. Much good will result from this meeting.

Mrs. S. D. Carpenter has been quite ill of heart trouble. Mrs. S. O. Estes, who has been so sick, is some better. Little Miss Gertrude Adams continues ill.

Mrs. Celia Arnold and daughter Miss Lizzie of Wichita, Kas., are guests of Mrs. Rebecca Pettus and family. J. M. Cress and family visited friends in Stanford. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Pettus, of Springfield, are visiting his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Pettus.

Mrs. George Dychouse has been very ill of menles and fever.

George B. Sutton and wife visited their friends, Rev. John Elder and family at Bee Lick.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Adams of near Junction City, visited the families of J. P. Ballard and Geo. A. Brown.

Services Sunday at Beech Grove church by Rev. A. C. Baird.

Messrs. J. E. R. T., and Misses Rinda and Ila Pettus went to Somerset to attend the burial of their cousin, Miss Nannie Pettus. She was a daughter of W. H. Pettus, who at one time, was the clerk of Drake's Creek Baptist church at this place. Miss Pettus is survived by four brothers, Messrs. Richard Walter Ebben and William, and three sisters, Lillie, Mary and Sallie. Deceased was a good kind Christian woman and general favorite with all. She was a member of the Baptist church. Miss Pettus will live long in the memory of many for her efforts in the cause of education.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shaw and Joseph Davis and wife were visiting Frank Lykins and wife.

Several of our people are attending the 118th session of the Tate's Creek association which is convened with Good Hope Baptist church, three miles east of Garrard.

George Naylor had a valuable mare to die Sunday.

J. F. Holtzclaw and T. Y. Shaw shipped a nice load of cattle to Cincinnati off the Holtzclaw ranch near here.

Your types will get the I. J. field man in trouble. In the "write up" Tuesday last he says Paint Lick is 20 miles "north-west" of Stanford Oh you unregenerate office devil!

A protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church here Sept. 9, "the services will be in charge of Rev. Anderson Cornelius, the pastor, and Rev. Jones, who comes recommended very highly as an excellent divine.

Rev. A. C. Baird preached Sunday present. At their Sunday school session the following officers were elected for the quarter: Tom Wells Supt.; G. W. Spangler, Treas.; and Mrs. Besse Martin Sec'y. Good selections.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cress went to Rockcastle to visit Mrs. John Alfred Proctor, who is very sick. They also visited J. J. Smith and family near Brodhead.

Mr. Elmer Fowler and little son, of Greensburg, Ind., are visiting the family of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Davall.

F. L. Thompson, the popular drummer of Mt. Vernon, visited his brother, J. J. Thompson and family.

Bob Scott sold 2 calves to Scott Bros., of Goshen for $21.

Messrs. J. T. and Ed. Brown, of Bell county were guests of their sister, Mrs. Thos. Durham of White's Mill. Will Calloway of Bell was also a visitor.

Diarrhoea is always more or less prevalent during September. Be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is prompt and effective. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.

HEAD-ON COLLISION ON L. & N. HERE FRIDAY.

Passenger Trains Come Together With Crash close to Depot—Only Damage to Engines.

With a crash heard for several blocks, followed by a cloud of steam that mounted to the heavens, west bound L. & N., through train from Knoxville to Louisville, due to pass Stanford at 5:40 A. M., met the K. C. leaving for Richmond, Winchester and Maysville head on a few hundred yards east of the depot here last Friday morning. Both engines were badly battered up, and they with their entire trains would probably have been hurled down the embankment at that point of the track had not No. 24 the west bound train, been slowly pulling up the hill from Rowland, while the K. C. had almost been brought to a standstill by Engineer Tom Rice who saw the west bound train pulling around a turn ahead of him, but too late to stop and back his train out of the way. Engineer Rice and his fireman and the express messenger jumped off the train before the collision occurred. Engineer Wright suffering the fracture of three ribs. He was the only one hurt in the wreck except an old lady who was slightly jured by being thrown against a seat when the impact came. George Gentry, the well known colored man of Stanford was on the K. C., and leaped off with agility when he saw that there was going to be a collision.

The cause of the head-on collision is said to have been that the dispatcher at Livingston forgot to have the K. C. held here to wait for the through train to pass going west before turning the K. C. loose on the tracks to Rowland. His orders gave the K. C. right of way over all trains to Rowland, till 5:10 A. M., and at that very time the west bound train was pulling out of Rowland coming up the hill toward Stanford. The west bound train was about 15 minutes late and the operators who took the order thought that the K. C. had ample time to get to Rowland and then switch off toward Lancaster and Richmond before the other train would be due.

The wrecker was immediately summoned from Livingston and it was well toward noon before it had the smashed engines out of the way and on to a siding at Rowland, so that a freight engine could take the passenger coaches of No. 24 on to Louisville, about eight or nine hours late. The K. C. engine, No. 41, well known here, where it has served on this run for many years, was almost shattered to kindling wood from the heavy impact of the big locomotive which hit it. The front of the other engine's boiler was dented in a little and the water tank put to leaking, which was about all the damage done to it. Had not the engine crew of the K. C. jumped, they would have undoubtedly been killed in their cab, for the front of the tender was jammed into the forward part of the engine in a way which would have smashed the life out of anything living in the cab.

Mail Clerk E. C. Garman ramgly stuck to his car and was uninjured. The wreck took place almost directly in front of the Elms, the old Helm place, and a big crowd of people gathered there to watch the wreck or at work.

This accident clearly demonstrates the need of a double track from Stanford to Rowland for the use of the K. C., and it is believed that the officials will see the necessity and get busy. It has been argued that by double tracking from here to Rowland, the necessity of maintaining an operating force there could be completely eliminated, and thus much extra expense be saved.

UNION. (Garrard Co.) Misses Sarah and Carrie Reed, of Lancaster, were visiting Misses Eliza Beth and Rose Murphy last week.

Messrs. Walter and Oscar Hammack, of Paint Lick, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hammack, Sr., Mr. Hammack, who has been confined to his bed for some six years with rheumatism, is some better.

Mrs. Arch Onstott and sister, Miss Alice Spratt, of Moreland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owens.

The 118 annual association of the Baptist church comprising the Tate's Creek Association was held at Good Hope church here. Messengers from more than 20 churches were present. The crowd on the first day was estimated at 3,000 people, which was about half of the crowd which would have been present if it had not been rainy.

Digestion and Assimilation. It is not the quantity of food taken but the amount digested and assimilated that gives strength and vitality to the system.
